"SEXUAL ABUSE...the BIGGEST SECRET IN THE WORLD"

If nobody ever talks about it, when does the healing begin?

Young & Na!ve is a poetic apology to everyone ever sexually molested and a film that needs to be seen by everyone ever born.

(Los Angeles, CA) Inner City Cultural Center II is proud to present an International Award-Winning short film by Tuesday Conner. "Young & Na!ve" is a masterful work of art that brings the taboo topic of Sexual Abuse into mainstream conversations through Performance Art, Open Dialogue and Honest Talk-Back with the Audience about the Signs, the Pain and the Healing.

What started as a homework assignment to complete one of three thoughts has become a life changing experience for the writer Tuesday Conner and the hearts she's touched from their own personal experiences. "When I Was Young & Naive…" was the assignment Tuesday chose to complete in her weekly program she'd created for audience participation and involvement. The eloquent words of Tuesday's journey to face her past begin a tidal wave of healing hearts at Poet's Jazz House….just somewhere to go in the midst of searching your soul. When Tuesday's poem "Robin" became commanded wherever she went- and people from all walks of life, ages, races, religion and genders walked up to her afterwards and thanked her- As tears flowed Tuesday knew souls were being healed and "Young & Na!ve" had to go global.

Tuesday's Directorial Career began in her poetry lounge where spilling your heart is art and searching your soul is mandatory to get in the door. Her short film "Young & Na!ve" delves deep into the mind of a poet, it's a remarkable and profoundly affecting story; as seen through the eyes of spoken word artists spitting the powerful intensity of truth.

It is our mission to get "Young & Naive" into Crisis Centers, Foster Homes, Universities, Family Advocacy Programs and Rape Treatment Centers worldwide to help prevent people from living in pain for a lifetime. For more information on how you can help, obtain a DVD copy or to book a Speaking Engagement feel free to contact Tuesday Conner directly.
