Luxury Portfolio SUMMIT Conveys Market and Consumer Trends to Leading Real Estate Professionals

- Mirsky Valore Palm Beach Real Estate Joins Elite Group to Explore Changes in Luxury Market. -

PALM BEACH, FL (4/23/2012) – A global audience of the top real estate professionals was in attendance for the Luxury Portfolio SUMMIT, March 22-24 at Waldorf Astoria Orlando in Florida. Participants included Kevin M. Leonard, Co-Founder of Mirsky Valore, a member of Luxury Portfolio International™, the luxury face of Leading Real Estate Companies of the World®. LeadingRE is the largest global network of premier locally branded companies dominated by many of the world's most powerful independent luxury brokerages.

The program offered strategies for serving luxury home buyers and sellers, highlighting what motivates today's luxury consumers in a rebounding market. "Last year, the real estate market experienced many positive changes as it continues to adjust," said Paul Boomsma, president of Luxury Portfolio. "The luxury space in particular attracted a renewed attention creating a demand for our network's real estate professionals to stay on point with the ever-evolving luxury preferences which was reflected in our increased attendance this year."

Keynote speakers included Robert Frank, best-selling author and senior writer for The Wall Street Journal, whose session, "Identities of the High-Beta Rich," examined the changing impact of wealth on the economy. Also featured were numerous panel discussions featuring Luxury Portfolio members and wealth experts from other industries, who exchanged perspectives on how to define and project luxury offerings.

Jim Taylor from the Harrison Group conducted a sales seminar illuminating trends relating to today's luxury consumer, identifying the sources of opportunity and defining how to capitalize on the changed market.

Rounding out the SUMMIT was social media expert Spike Jones, who shared ways to make "Word of Mouth Marketing" work for all audiences in a digital age.

"It is critical to understand the shifting dynamics and trends of our affluent customers in Palm Beach; Real Estate sales is a service industry and we strive to be on the forefront" said Mr. Leonard.
