BRANGUS JOURNAL: INTERNATIONAL ISSUE 2008

The June/July issue of the Brangus Journal promises to be a ground breaking one. All editorial content will be printed in both English and Spanish, and the issue itself will be distributed to an additional 2500 persons representing the Brangus breed throughout Latin America.

Articles within the International Issue will focus on export regulations, the impact of free trade and experiences within the Latin American market.

This issue represents a unique opportunity to reach a truly international audience and expose your business to an ever-growing market. We kindly invite you to consider advertising in this inaugural International Issue.
