The Man & Woman of the Year event has been one of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's signature events since 1990.

Candidates are judged solely on their success generating funds for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. Candidates raise these funds in honor of the Boy & Girl of the Year, local children who have been diagnosed with a blood cancer. The male & female who raise the most funds after the eight week campaign are crowned The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's 2009 Man & Woman of the year.

Leukemia, lymphoma and myeloma are cancers that originate in the bone marrow or lymphatic tissue as the result of an acquired genetic injury to the DNA of a single cell. The cell then becomes malignant and multiplies continuously. This abnormal accumulation interferes with the production of healthy blood cells.

An estimated 894,543 Americans are living with leukemia, lymphoma and myeloma.

The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society is the world's largest voluntary health organization dedicated to funding blood cancer research and providing education and patient services. Since its founding in 1949, the Society has invested more than $600 million in research funding. The Northern Florida Chapter of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society is located in Jacksonville and includes Tallahassee, St. Augustine, Ocala, Gainesville and their surrounding areas.

The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society has dedicated itself to being one of the top rated voluntary health agencies in terms of dollars that directly fund our mission. Nearly 75% of every dollar we raise is spent on cancer research, education, advocacy and patient services. As a nonprofit, we rely on the generosity of individuals, corporations and foundations to advance our mission.

The Man & Woman of the Year event has been one of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's signature events since 1990.

Candidates competing for the title of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society Man & Woman of the Year are judged solely on a philanthropic basis – on their success in generating funds for The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. Candidates raise these funds in honor of the Boy and Girl of the Year, local children who have been diagnosed with a blood cancer. The male and female candidate who raise the most funds after the eight week campaign are crowned The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's 2009 Man & Woman of the Year.

The Candidates competing for The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Man & Woman of the Year are individuals from both the social and business communities who are motivated by supporting The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

Candidates run in honor of our 2009 Boy & Girl of the Year. Your support will help these children and thousands of others in the fight against blood cancers!
