RANDOLPH'S CHALLENGE BOOK ONE – THE PENDULUM SWINGS

Reluctant Hero Stars in Fantasy Adventure

Randolph is an easy-going, wandering minstrel given to flights of fancy. When he learns his good luck actually stems from magical powers, Randolph is thrust into the role of hero.

Randolph's Challenge Book One – The Pendulum Swings is the beginning of a medieval epic fantasy set in the Kingdom of Alusia. As Randolph discovers his special abilities, the reluctant hero is charged with saving Alusia and the entire Western Realm. His humorous journey takes many exciting twists and turns as Randolph bids to overthrow the evil Thrung and Shawadarg. On his often dangerous quest, Randolph not only finds romance, but learns how to fly and become invisible. However, Randolph also discovers that his powers come with extraordinary responsibilities, and he is forced to wrestle with his own emotions and conscience as he faces each fresh challenge.

This is fantasy at its best, with underlying meaning for us all. Readers will appreciate the book's magical and mysterious characters as they join in the most basic conflict in the world: the fight between good and evil.
