

Missionary Embarks to End Poverty and Establish Free Education for Millions

Donald Jones, a missionary, has set out to create a foundation for helping people across the globe. His website not only brings awareness about victims of poverty to an online audience but also helps setup funding programs to help support the foundation's charitable aims as well as educate online viewers.

Laurel, Maryland (July 1, 2009) — The compassionate missionary, Donald Jones, has created a foundation to help bring hope to the millions of innocent, poverty-stricken children around the globe. Donald launched the Jonesage International Ltd foundation to bring awareness to challenges faced by victims of human trafficking, child abuse, social instability, and poverty. The Jonesage institute follows a strong humanitarian code of ethics that has led to the creation of social welfare programs as well as free educational products.

To combat the social, cultural, and economic challenges of humanity, Jonesage International introduced the Liberty Reserve Welfare Fund. The program allows charitable donors and businesses to advertise with Jonesage International LTD. Interested parties can invest $50 or $100 into the account and expect a return of 3% every ten days. The program also allows investors to gain as much as 7% on their investment after a three-month period for investments ranging from $3000 to $5000 usd.

With the supportive funding of the Liberty Reserve, the Jonesage Limited foundation creates valuable opportunities for children that live in impoverished conditions. The United Nation's estimates that "about 72 million children of primary school age in the developing world were not in school in 2005; 57 per cent of them were girls." Jonesage International is committed to helping children attain an education with the support of their welfare programs by providing much needed educational resources as well as scholarships to candidates that show creativity, motivation, and potential.

Jonesage International also broadcasts free informational products for their online viewers and promotes entrepreneurial educational resources. Their first product release is an inspirational e-book that describes how to overcome environmental and financial challenges. The second informational product release is an email-marketing guide that helps entrepreneurs and business owners create their email marketing campaigns that establish a robust channel of communication to their respective clients. Jonesage International uses these tools to help their goals of spreading awareness and supporting victims of poverty.

For additional information, updates, educational resources, and progress made by the Jonesage International Ltd. foundation please visit www.jonesage.com or contact LFR COMMUNICATIONS INC, at jonesage90@yahoo.com.

About:

Donald Jones is an exemplary missionary that advocates humanitarian support for people suffering from cultural, social, economic, and poverty-stricken conditions. Jones established his site as a means to help fund the Jonesgale International Ltd Non-Profit foundation. Donald promotes the use of the internet to help fund the Jonesgale foundation as well as offer free informational products to create awareness amongst viewers and develop relationships with interested parties.