“I’ve got five seconds to grab your attention.
I died, I came back, I wrote two books.
Please let me share the other side with you.”

Hello, my name is Dr. Reece W. Manley and this was the line I had to use on the big publishing guys for my book to find its way to reality. Forgive me for using it again. Yes, I did cross over. No, I’m not a kook. I’m a doctoral level educated man who happens to have had a look at the other side.

I battled MRSA Pneumonia for five months in Plano Presbyterian in the Spring of 2008. During that time, I crossed over to the most awe inspiring, encompassing love ever known to me.

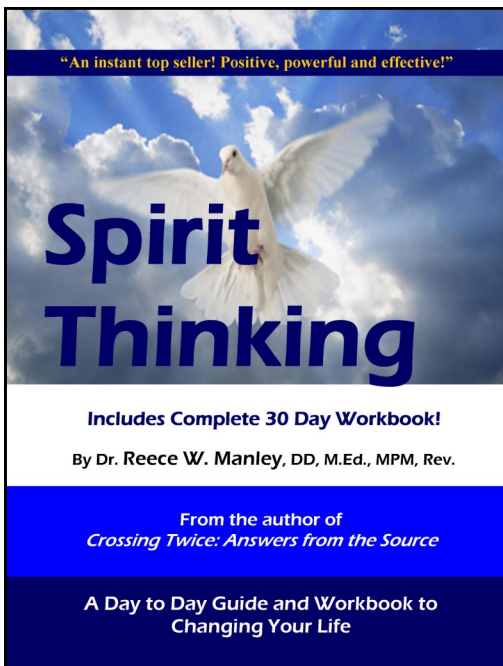

When I returned, I threw out everything I thought I knew about counseling and began working hard to bring about the Truth to people in my helping sessions.

The good news! We do go on and we go on to a fantastic place of love, peace, power and compassion for all people of all creeds. The better news! Our Creator empowers us right here, right now on Earth to change our lives!

You see, after 15 years in the counseling professions, I’ve seen hopeless cases of depression, anxiety, incest survival; things you’ve never thought people could survive. And, I had nothing to offer them but my training up through post-doctoral studies in Human Development at Texas Tech. Not much a man can say to someone who has survived these things.

But what wonderful things the Creator can say! I have written two books. One, Crossing Twice: Answers from the Source details my crossing and the most common questions I’m asked about it. The other, Spirit Thinking, shows how to apply spiritual qualities to our lives to make them almost foolproof against the woes of mental health.

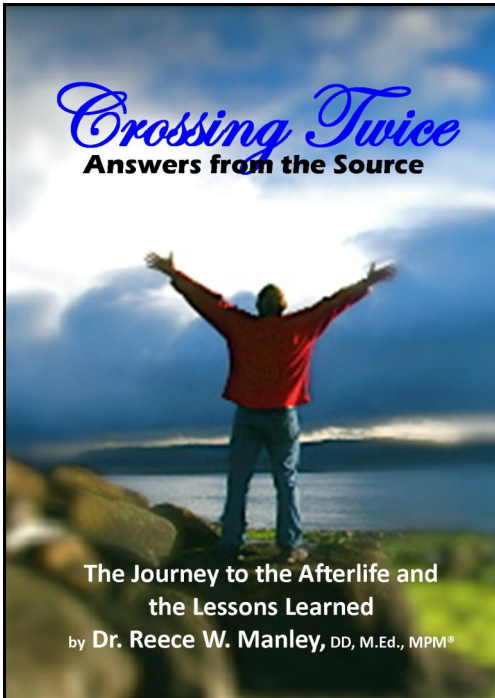

I’ve got to get the word out. Please help me! I’m available for phone and in-person interviews and no topic is off limits. What you want to ask, I’ll answer! I’ll be calling a little later to follow up with you or you can reach me at 214-862-3675 or reece@manley.net. I appreciate your time!

Introductory Information

Dr. Reece W. Manley, DD, M.Ed., MPM, Rev. is a 40 year old resident of Addison, Texas. Dr. Manley had a medically verifiable near death experience in the Spring of 2008 while battling MRSA Pneumonia.

He crossed over into the next life, through three distinct stages before being returned to this life.

Dr. Manley was inspired to change all of his approach to life to include powerful, compassionate, inclusive spirituality.

“There is no room for hate. So many faiths limit God’s love and power by applying man’s limits to God. You are not going to Hell for your sins. You are not going to heaven for your acts. All that happens is by the Grace and Love of our Creator. How do I know? Been there, done that,” says Dr. Manley.

Reece W. Manley, DD, M.Ed., MPM
