Our Job Isn't Finished Until You're 100% Satisfied.

Whether you're a small company or a large corporation, Frontline Source Group can provide you with the top talent you require. Our years of experience and broad bandwidth in the staffing industry allow us to offer a wide array of service options to meet your needs for direct, contract, and contract-to-hire placements.

At Frontline, we work closely with clients to ensure we match their requests with the very best talent available. We carefully screen and interview all our candidates, verifying references to confirm skills and experience. Only pre-screened candidates who are informed about your position and interested in your company are submitted for your consideration.

Frontline is committed to providing the highest quality service to both our clients and candidates through a relationship-based, respectful approach. So next time you have a staffing need and want to save time, money and effort please visit us online at www.FrontlineSourceGroup.com to locate a nearby office.

Our Guarantee to You:
Temporary Placement: If for any reason you're not satisfied with the work of our temporary employee within the first four (4) hours worked, we'll replace the employee without billing you for those hours.

Direct Placement: We have a ninety day guarantee. In case of failure during the first ninety calendar days of employment, we will refund a prorated amount of the fee based on the number of active service calendar days. Certain Restrictions Apply
