

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Press Contact

Luis Usma

North Star Charter

T: 212-931-4870

F: 212-922-9228

E: luis@nscharter.com

W: www.nscharter.com

North Star Charter Announces Partnership with P.S. Group LTD

New York, NY— February 3, 2010 – North Star Charter, one of the leading names in luxury travel services, announced a unique partnership with P.S. Group LTD security firm today. According to the agreement, North Star and P.S. Group have partnered to enhance and extend the high level of security to its clientele on or off their executive flight.

The North Star/P.S. Group partnership will also provide additional security services to executives, athletes, celebrities, and foreign dignitaries to all locations worldwide. The extended services are available now and consultation is required to acquire the service.

“We are extremely excited about our new partnership with the P.S. Group LTD,” said Jose Zavala, CEO of North Star Charter. “They are one of the most respected private security firms in the world, and our clients deserve the highest level of safety and security! Many of our clients already use this service. We are proud to offer them the P.S. Group worldwide services! We look forward to a mutually beneficial partnership in the years to come.”

John H. Small (CEO) of P.S. Group LTD. states “our new strategic alliance with North Star Charter will allow both organizations to benefit in a massive way from the vast array of cross marketing initiatives that will be implemented. North Star Charter is a world renowned charter company and we are honored to be affiliated with such a class act.”

About North Star Charter

North Star Charter, LLC, a New York based company, has provided private jet charter consulting services to a wide array of customers, including business and leisure travelers, sports teams and corporations worldwide since 2005. North Star’s vast network of jets, yachts and luxury accommodations combine with 30 years of executive aviation expertise to provide the ultimate travel experience. They offer their clients the most luxurious aircraft, and highest levels of safety for each and every trip. For more information on North Star, please visit their website – www.nscharter.com.

About P.S. Group LTD

P.S. Group LTD. is a New York based private security firm with offices in both New York City and Los Angeles California. They specialize in executive protection, high profile special events, as well as commercial and residential site security services. Their team of security specialists with over twenty years experience in Law Enforcement, Armed Forces and the private security sector provides security services for a host of A-list celebrities, professional athletes, entertainers and political figures. They pride themselves in providing private security in the finest tradition and are leading the industry in the new millennium. For more information on P.S. Group LTD. please visit their website at www.PSGroupLTD.com