The Rules:

Entries must be a unique and original story between 200-500 words with at least one picture. Entries must be submitted electronically directly to AVID Soccer (Contest@avidsoccer.com) or added to the AVID Soccer Facebook discussion for the respective category. Entries should describe why someone meets the qualifications (self nominations are encouraged). There is no limit to the number of nominations, but each must be a unique and original story. Entries must be received between March 29, 2010 and May 28, 2010. Winners will be announced the week of June 21st. The contest is open to US Residents over the age of 18. Youth entries must be submitted by a parent or guardian.

All entries become the property of AVID Soccer. Winners will be selected by a committee and all decisions are final. Winners will be contacted by AVID Soccer for size and shipping information. Prizes will be shipped by the manufacturer four to six weeks later.

About AVID Soccer:

AVID Soccer (<http://www.avidsoccer.com>) is a grass roots organization that provides information and training to individual players, groups and teams. AVID Soccer consists of coaches and trainers dedicated to improving the image of soccer; the level of training; and the level of play.

The ASER (<http://blog.avidsoccer.com>), one of the largest independent review sites, provides objective testing services, reviews and information on soccer equipment and related products. The AVID Soccer Equipment Review web log was founded in March 2006.

AVID Soccer News (<http://news.avidsoccer.com>) presents product announcements, player gossip, team transfers, lifestyle, etc. In short, we present the news and views of the soccer world. Articles are compiled from original content, press releases and reprinted publications.
