Instructor Rosemary Beam Joins Therapy in Transition as Mind and Spirit Coach

Therapy in Transition (TITO), which recently put together an Expert Panel to expand its services, has brought Rosemary Beam on board as the organization's Mind and Spirit Coach.

Wilsonville, OR – {March 24, 2010} Therapy in Transition is pleased to announce Rosemary Beam has joined its Expert Panel team as the organization's Mind and Spirit Coaching expert.

Stones, minerals and crystals have long intrigued Beam, who since childhood has collected minerals as well as studied their use and properties since the early 1980s. In addition, she has a successful healing practice and crystal essence line called Crystal Nector in Portland, OR, and teaches regularly across the West Coast of the United States.

Karen Kleinwort, Founder of Therapy in Transition said, "Rosemary is amazing woman. She brings with her not just expertise and knowledge regarding crystals and minerals, but she has more than 20 years of retail management experience. Rosemary is a great mentor for those individuals seeking to learn the balancing of work and play."

Beam describes herself as experienced with and fascinated by all things relating to energy medicine, Shamanic practices of the Laika, and crystal and minerals. She said, "My ability is to journey and work with energy medicine, crystal healing and readings—helping to guide people toward their path, on their path, or toward awakening/stimulating their growth. My goal is to help people awaken to their epic journey."

Beam currently studies Energy Medicine with The Four Winds Society and is a Certified "Melody" method Crystal Healing Instructor, Master Crystologist, Reiki Master and certified Therapeutic Healing Touch Practitioner.
