Excalibur Technology Announces Cincinnati, OH Franchise Opens!

Barrington, IL – Scott Cummings, founder and President of Excalibur Technology formally announced the grand opening of the Cincinnati, OH franchise office.

Cummings stated, "This will be one of four new offices opening in the next two months. With the economy recovering, there is a surge of small and midsized businesses seeking technical support. Excalibur Technology will be there to meet those needs. Our corporate team of certified engineers and web programmers allows our franchisees to start servicing clients within the first week of opening without all of the other usual startup worries. We are here for them every step along the way.

Excalibur Technology has been in business for over 16 years and provides complete network, Internet and website services to business clients. All of their staff members are highly certified and committed to proactively working with clients to eliminate costly downtime. All work is performed by Excalibur employees in the US – nothing is outsourced.

The Cincinnati, OH office is headed by owner Mark Robinson, a 24 year Information Technology (IT) veteran with extensive experience in the Insurance Industry. Mark's Technology background includes experience in all areas of IT.

Regarding the Excalibur Technology opportunity Mark states, "As a lifelong resident of Southwest OH, I am very excited to bring the amazing services of Excalibur Technology to the greater Cincinnati area and to demonstrate my personal commitment to servicing the business community here. My goal is to be the premier technology partner for every small and medium size business in the Hamilton, Butler, Warren, and Clermont counties including their surrounding areas. With the depth of services Excalibur Technology can provide, along with the extensive knowledge of our certified staff, I am comfortable this goal can be achieved."
