

Pegasus Residential Announces Third Apartment Management Contract in Houston

Atlanta, GA (May 2010) – Pegasus Residential, a professional property management company based in Alpharetta, GA, announces its third management contract in Houston.

Discovery at Shadow Creek Ranch, a development of McCann Realty Partners, is a brand new luxury apartment community located minutes from downtown Houston in Pearland, TX. This is the fourth such partnership in Texas between Pegasus Residential and McCann Realty Partners. Both companies have successfully worked together on projects in other states.

Discovery at Shadow Creek Ranch is already ahead of schedule and the onsite sales and leasing office should open in the middle of June 2010. The first residents will be taking occupancy on or before July 1, 2010.

Many more projects are also in the pipeline; earlier this year the firm expanded its management portfolio to include Texas and Virginia. "The growth has been tremendous," says Lindy Ware, President. "We're really excited about bringing our unique brand of talented individuals to areas where we know we can make a difference."
