

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Inspirational Booger Book From The PhazelFOZ Company

Chicago, IL - June 30, 2010 - The phazelFOZ Company has brought together author DJ Corchin and illustrator Dan Dougherty once again to publish another charming and fun children's book, You Got A Boogie. A silly and heartwarming, full-colored story that provides a hilarious opportunity to speak with kids about telling someone the truth.

Mr. Corchin's unique witty style brings to life the little nostril monsters that cause so much mischief in our everyday lives. As in his last book, he tackles a somewhat difficult topic to discuss, and transforms it with humor into a wonderful life lesson. Beautifully illustrated by Dan Dougherty, this book tackles the idea of why you should tell someone the truth when they need it the most.

Reader's reviews:

"Truly a children's book that will delight all generations. My youngest and I are fighting over who gets to read it again!"

"Executed with heart, wit, and soul. Fun and sorta gross at the same time. This book is a boogie wonderland!"

"The illustrations are fantastic! They'll keep you laughing over and over again!"

Mr. Corchin wrote You Got A Boogie to help parents find an easier way to discuss when it's appropriate to tell the truth. It explores all sorts of "nasal" scenarios that could become awkward because you didn't help out your friend. Although the book focuses on when someone has a boogie in their nose, the metaphor can be used as a great conversation starter for all sorts of situations.

You Got A Boogie is available for sale internationally at Amazon.com. For more information visit www.yougotaboogie.com.
