Favorite Thing to Autostraddle:
The theoretical line between perceived notion of personal sexuality and the possibility of deviation from those notions.

Meet: MISS JULY

Awni Spiral
Model, Graphic Designer

Three things I'd like to change about the world:
1) Free and equal education for everyone.
2) Cure for all terminal illnesses ("angels with silver wings shouldn't know suffering")
3) PEACE/change, the four-letter word "HATE" to the four-letter word "LOVE."

Meet: MISS OCTOBER

Elena
Performer/Artist

Goals:
To challenge stereotypes through the beauty of art and performance and collaborate and create for a new generation of independent film/theater. I want to live like a leaf on a river and occasionally set the streets on fire with protest.

Meet: MISS FEBRUARY

Julia

Goals:
I'd like to sing my way through life on the Broadway stage, maybe earn a Tony. That'd be nice.

Meet: MISS MAY

Alison
Writer

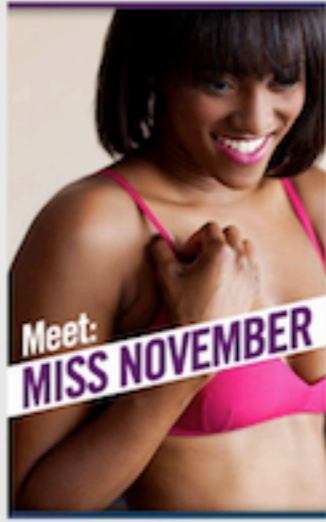

Three Things I'd Like to Change About the World:
1. Improve scientific and cultural literacy through better education systems.
2. Faster, shinier, more efficient public transportation.
3. Civil unions for EVERYONE (keep church and state separate, thanks)

Meet: MISS AUGUST

Laura
Massage Therapist, Yoga Instructor, Personal Trainer

Three things I'd like to change about the world:
The way we treat the environment, the way we treat each other, the way we treat ourselves.

Meet: MISS NOVEMBER

Jaime
Runs a LGBTQ Non-Profit

Goals:
Continue to explore the world, inspire positive change, get as smart as my brain will allow, live wide open and ensure the success of Somethingawesome.org for the LGBTQ community

Meet: MISS MARCH

Carmen
Comedian & Actress

Favorite Books:
I'm an avid reader, anything from fairy tales like Thumbelina to classic novels like Rebecca by Daphne De Maurie. I particularly enjoy non fiction pertaining to religion, philosophy and psychology. I'm a nerd. I could go on..

Meet: MISS JUNE

Nicole Pacent
Actress (Anyone But Me)

Turn-ons:
In a person -- a great sense of humor, confidence and intelligence (and a nice ass, obviously)

In general -- Mini Coopers the mashup of Nine Inch Nails' "Closer" with Madonna's "Erotica" and impeccable grammar/sentence structure.
