

SITL India Summit 2012

Profitable Opportunities in Indian Transport & Logistics Sector

23-24 February, 2012

Hall 5 | Bombay Exhibition Centre Mumbai

DAY 1

23 February, 2012

Module 1: Indian Transport & Logistics Sector: The Shipping & Ports Opportunity

Theme Session: Indian Transport & Logistics Sector: Forecasting the demand, supply and trends 2012 -2015

1030 Welcome Address: Alain Bagnaud, Head Reed Transport & Logistics Group

1040 Theme Address: Manish Saigal, KPMG India

1110 Vote of Thanks: Delphine Lemaire, Managing Director, Reed Exhibitions India

1115 Managing ports in the new era: shifting from an infrastructure to a company perspective

Wim van Sluis, Chairman, Rotterdam Port Promotion Council

1200 Coastal shipping in Europe: Policies, changes and results

Vincent De Saedeleer, Vice President, Port of Zeebrugge

1230 Clustering activities as the way forward for modern ports – learnings from the Port of Ghent

Hendrik-Jan van Engelen, Commercial Director, Port of Ghent

1300 Ports and supply chain sustainability – the North Adriatic perspective

Dr Bojan Hlaca, President North Adriatic Port Association & Executive Director, Port of Rijeka Authority

Module 2: Emerging Opportunities for the Logistics Sector

1430 Taxation structure and policy for Transport & Logistics sector in India

Girish Mistry, Partner - Direct Tax, KPMG in India

1500 ICD past, present and future in India

Santosh Hegde, Director, KSH Distriparks

1600 Opportunities for the shipping industry in the oil & gas and offshore sector

K Rajamani, Head Corporate Affairs, Essar Shipping

1630 What are the challenges for the purchasers of transport and how can Intermodal help them overcome: Making Intermodal work in the Indian context

Aswatha Nagendra, Chief Operating Officer, Forbes & Co

SITL India Summit 2012

Profitable Opportunities in Indian Transport & Logistics Sector

23-24 February, 2012

Hall 5 | Bombay Exhibition Centre Mumbai

DAY 2

24 February, 2012

Module 3: Optimising the Supply Chain for Higher Efficiency in Pharma & Retail Sectors

1030 Supply chain sustainability

Subir Shah, Senior Consultant, Transportation & Logistics (South Asia & Middle East), Frost & Sullivan

1100 Supply chain transformation in pharmaceutical sector – from rear seat to the cockpit

Winnie John, Director - Demand, Supply and Logistics, GlaxoSmithkline

1200 Building an agile, secure and customer centric supply chain

Gopal Nair, CEO, GRASP Enterprise

1230 Reducing working capital and increasing shelf life through 3 PL supply chain

Winnie John, Director - Demand, Supply and Logistics, GlaxoSmithkline; Gopal Nair, CEO, GRASP Enterprise; Prahlad Tanwar, Associate Director, KPMG in India

Module 4: Leveraging Technology and Automation to Enhance Profitability

1430 Emerging significance of TELCOs in providing secure solutions to logistics operators

Sai Pratyush, Head Applications & Solutions, Tata Teleservices

1500 e-Freight and paperless logistics: is it a dream

Satya Sai Kumar Jillella, CEO, G7 Infotech

1600 e-traceability and its advantages worldwide

Ron Konzeny, President, Transport & Logistics, Trimble Navigation

1630 A user experience of deploying technology for monitoring of mobile assets

Rajinder Singh Bhasin, Managing Director, Janta Roadways, Managing Trustee, The Institute of Road Safety & Truckknowledge, President, All India Interstate Lorry Owners Association