Forest of Angels Inc. is a registered non-profit organization.

Contributions to Forest of Angels Inc. are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law.

Promote and foster a sense of solidarity between communities and businesses and community involvement.

Forest of Angels, Inc. is aiming to establish a tradition in the state of Florida and perhaps become one of the country's largest charity events.

Forest of Angels is a community event that will involve a spacious indoor locale (Westfield Broward Mall) being transformed into an elaborately decorated Christmas tree forest. Five hundred public and private sector businesses and organizations will have the opportunity to purchase Christmas trees and elaborately adorn them to compete for a top prize which will be donated to the charity of their choice. This event is unique to the state of Florida and is expected to generate over one million visitors during the one month display. Proceeds from the event will be used to benefit charities and/or charitable causes.

The forest of decorated Christmas trees will take on a festival-like atmosphere. Families will tour the forest and displays and take part in a series of fun and high-quality programs. Visitors will not only be drawn by the beautiful displays, but they will also learn how your business is a responsible corporate citizen.

The event will be held in the Westfield Broward (Broward Mall) November 17th through December 24th, 2012. Additional details of the event are as follows:

What is it, and why would you want to be part of such an event?

Registered non-profit organizations will benefit. The company that decorates the tree will also receive recognition and advertisement.

The Tree Decoration Contest

Event attendees will vote for their favorite Christmas tree displays. The display will include the business/organization name as well as the charity the business has chosen. The 3 business that gets the greatest number of votes will win the top 3 prizes for their charity. In addition 100 % of the profits will be divided and donated to the remaining charities

The Activities

Event attendees will enjoy daily family oriented activities such as petting zoo, puppet show, daily raffle, goodie bag for kids, story time, choir, ornament creation, drawing station, magic show, face painting, Elmo, Captain America and other lovable characters, pictures with Santa, etc.

Why is your presence important?

This event is the first of its kind as is expected to generate a large number of visitors, over 1.1 million people will come in contact with your company's name and face in person. Forest of Angels, Inc. gives each business/organization that participates direct commercial publicity, as well as notoriety for its charity of choice.

You will be part of the country's largest charity event. The public and visitors will know that this was possible only with your help.

Every charity will benefit, no charities will be left out!
