

A Service Disabled Veterans Business Enterprise.

Wall Street Firm Steps Up to Plate on Veteran's Day; Mischler Financial Group to Contribute November Profits to Wounded Warrior Project

For Immediate Release

Newport Beach, CA, November 9---In honor of Veterans Day 2012, Mischler Financial Group, Inc., the securities industry's oldest and largest Service Disabled Veterans Business Enterprise, has announced that it will be contributing 10% of the firm's November profits to the Wounded Warrior Project; the leading non-profit dedicated to creating jobs and improving the circumstances of the thousands of men and women who risked their lives and became physically disabled while serving in our country's Armed Forces. Since its formation in 1994, Mischler Financial Group has been recognized for its year-round initiatives that support various causes focused on disabled veteran advocacy and related philanthropic programs.

According to Walter Mischler, Chairman/CEO of Mischler Financial, "To our many clients, constituents and the securities industry firms that we work with on a daily basis, we thank you for enabling our firm to do good by giving back to Veterans who have served our country, protected our freedoms and ensured the safety of our families."

In an internal note to clients, the firm advised those wishing to make their own contributions directly to the Wounded Warrior Project, a non-profit that has become the leading advocacy, fundraising, counseling and peer mentoring group for service disabled veterans, should do so by visiting <http://www.woundedwarriorproject.org/>
