

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: DECEMBER 3, 2012

NEW YORK, NY December 2, 2012 – Graciously Beginning LLC is proud to announce the publication of its first title. “The Three” is a speculative fiction novella that is written by Loribel Maldonado and inspired by the story of creation. The story draws from the events depicted in the book of Genesis and uses it as the foundation to the plot, however, the events that take place in this story will never be found in any of the books contained in the bible. This story is far from religion and the writers wish to stay clear of the dogma associated with such, however, this story is filled with dilemmas and moral issues that are faced by society today on a daily basis. Greed, lust, and revenge are issues that the author highlights in this epic tale of survival. Graciously Beginning LLC wants to spread awareness on this upcoming novella to the residents of NYC. Graciously Beginning wants to let new and upcoming authors know about a community based publishing company that will help its clients achieve their publishing goals without preying on the wallets of their clients. Graciously Beginning contends that they are not a vanity press and clients under a publishing contract will not be charged for the services provided. Graciously Beginning LLC is an Independent publisher that was founded in 2012 by Loribel Maldonado. Loribel Maldonado is also the author of “The Three.” Although Loribel Maldonado was born in Puerto Rico, Loribel Maldonado was raised in various parts of NYC. These parts include, Spanish Harlem, Brooklyn, and the Bronx. Secondly, Graciously Beginning LLC is proud to service the community in which it abides.

The Three will be released on January 6, 2013; The Three is currently available pre-sale at www.bn.com, www.amazon.com, and other internet outlets such as www.thegbookstore.com, and on their company website www.graciouslybeginning.com. In addition, Graciously Beginning LLC has a dedicated information page for all things “The Three.” There you can read interesting back story details about the story line and the characters to enhance the reading experience of the fans. That site address is www.the-three.info.

###