

LeadIndia2020.com Global Website Launched By Honorable Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam

Livingston (NJ), by staff writer: On Monday Feb 4, 2013, at LB Stadium in Hyderabad, India, Honorable Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam, former president of India addressed as chief guest at the Lead India 2020 National Summit and declared 25,000 Students who attended the event from all over India as Lead India Change Agents. All these students underwent the “Aap Bhado Desh Ko Badhao” intensive training program conducted by Lead India 2020 and successfully graduated.

Dr. Kalam has a vision to see India among the developed nations in the world by the year 2020, his mission and methodology is simple, “Individual Development Leads to Honorable, Former President of India, Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam, Chief Guest, Lead India 2020 National Summit.

National Development”, as the motto is “Aap Bhado Desh Ko Badhao”. Dr. Kalam says India has over 640 Million youth under the age of 25; there is no such powerful resource anywhere in the world. By encouraging youth and providing appropriate resources and guidance, they will become responsible citizens to build the nation; Dr. Kalam interacted with many of these students as he boosted their morale with his inspirational message and charisma.

Further, Dr. Kalam launched the Lead India 2020 Global Website, www.LeadIndia2020.com. And also, he released the inaugural issue of “Yuva Shakti” monthly magazine published by Lead India 2020 primarily focused to inspire the youth with motivational articles and success stories.

Executive Team Lead India 2020 Foundation, USA

According to Mr. Harikishan Eppanapally, president of the Lead India 2020 Foundation (US), our primary focus is to expand Lead India 2020 activities overseas to engage over 100 Million NRIs around the globe.
