Pixels & Dots, LLC 2012 Public Awareness Award Winner

Cincinnati, OH. (February 21st, 2013) – Pixels & Dots, LLC announced as an OPI Award recipient.

Pixels & Dots, LLC is recognized by the Ohio Public Images Network as an organization who made an exceptional effort to promote awareness and acceptance of individuals with disabilities. Pixels & Dots, LLC will be presented with an OPI Award at the Annual Awards Luncheon in Dublin-Columbus on March 11th of this year. This recognition is for the company's outstanding design and development of the Hamilton County Developmental Disabilities Services web site, launched November of 2012. The site promotes services and resources offered to those with disabilities, their families, and the community, in order to foster a safe, healthy, and happy future for those with disabilities. Pixels & Dots, LLC is a proud and grateful recipient of the OPI Award.
