What Others Are Saying About Her Show

"It was a pleasure to be interviewed on the Darlene Hunter Show. Darlene's professionalism made it easy from the pre-interview details to her interview style. Darlene respects her audience and is about real answers, not just motivational clichés. She asked very thoughtful questions about my faith, overcoming my prison experience and its relevance to her listeners as they face their obstacles. I could feel the connection between Darlene, her audience and me. The result was an intimate interview of real value. It was quite special. Darlene's program really does make a difference in people's lives." - Trish Jenkins

"I really enjoyed my opportunity to share with others how to accept their past, become aware of the present and awaken to their futures thanks to Darlene Hunters commitment to motivate real people. Sharing came so easy as Darlene and I simply talked about our own pasts, presents and futures. Life is filled with moments that stand out as small miracles; the connection we made was one of those that I am grateful to have experienced." - Kate Michels

"I loved it! When the host asks the right questions as Darlene did, you're able to meet the needs of the audience." - Paulette Harper Johnson

What Others Are Saying About Her Book

"I couldn't put the book down. It was inspirational. The author's story and message transcends gender race, religion and age group. In addition to my wife, my college age son and teen son read the book and we discussed it in-depth. For the author to overcome these obstacles and become a successful business- person, wonderful mother and wife is truly remarkable" – Stephen

"Great book, a page turner, a must read. THIS book inspires you to never give up no matter what you are going through. It equips you with the tools of how to release the winner in you Through Jesus Christ. I was inspired and Blessed by reading this book" - Talania

"What a truly inspirational and heartfelt book! The Author has touched my heart in so many ways. In reading this book she has taught me that with your faith in God and knowing that God is always in control even when you don't see it, you CAN truly overcome any obstacle in your life big or small" - Sharon Davis
