

RECSOLU CREATING OPPORTUNITIES FOR CHICAGO'S TECH COMMUNITY

As the leading web and mobile recruitment software, services and consulting company, RECSOLU is proud to announce our company and corporate headquarters is expanding. We've recently acquired new office space and have built a Technical Wing to house our growing population of engineers, information security experts and cloud infrastructure gurus.

Having been recognized by Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel as one of Chicago's leading growth-phase companies, we're excited to have the physical capacity to bring in more exceptional talent to our team so we can continue to innovate and develop state-of-the-art recruitment technology.

Our Co-Founders

Jason Weingarten
President
Global Operations

"As a native Chicago entrepreneur, I'm excited to participate in the continued growth of the Chicago technology and startup community. I believe RECSOLU is well positioned to attract and retain top engineering talent, and we want to lend our support towards that larger initiative as we continue to grow our business."

Dan Bartfield
President
Client Solutions Group

"With our growing team of engineers, we want to continue to develop and ship apps that eliminate our customer's struggles and empower them to make the best hiring decisions around the globe."

About Us: Founded in 2008, RECSOLU's mission is to revolutionize recruitment through our innovative technology and services. Our clients include numerous FORTUNE 250 companies and government organizations who utilize our web and mobile technology and services to source and hire talent globally.
