

CCS Sponsors 2013 VT KnowledgeWorks Global Partnership Week

CCS-Inc., a leader in industrial computing solutions for harsh environments and mission-critical applications, is proud to announce its sponsorship of the 2013 VT KnowledgeWorks Global Partnership Week. Taking place across the New River and Roanoke Valleys from August 18-24, 2013, the Global Partnership Week brings together technology professionals, students, faculty, and staff from all over the world to collaborate, form partnerships, and build their global networks.

In addition to serving as an event sponsor, CCS will also host a team of students from the University of British Columbia as they prepare to compete in the Global Student Business Concept Challenge. Gary Overstreet, VP of Marketing & Sales for CCS, states, "We are looking forward to helping the students perfect their pitch and increase their chances of winning the $25,000 grand prize to invest in their innovative business concept."

Lindsey Eversole, Outreach Manager of VT KnowledgeWorks, comments on CCS' involvement: "This will be the fourth consecutive year that CCS has served as a sponsor of Global Partnership Week. We are very thankful for their continued participation as a host company and event sponsor."

Marty Muscatello, President & CEO of CCS, adds that, "We see the Global Partnership Week as an excellent opportunity to expand CCS' international network and share our expertise with up and coming entrepreneurs in the technology industry."

To learn more about Global Partnership Week, visit www.vtkwglobal.com.

About CCS-Inc.

CCS-Inc. helps companies excel in their markets by providing industrial computing expertise, reliable turnkey systems, and thorough lifecycle management that supports their operations and product development efforts. To learn more, visit www.ccs-inc.com.

About VT KnowledgeWorks

VT KnowledgeWorks encourages and enables creative entrepreneurship world-wide, through innovative curriculum, local business resource centers, and a global network of cooperating regions. To learn more, visit www.vtknowledgeworks.com.