

The Metropolitan Room Presents:
The Satin Doll Trio Salutes the Music of Julie London

Washington DC's popular Satin Doll Trio presents an intimate musical program focused on the early minimalist recordings of Julie London that popularized great American Standards such as "Cry Me a River", "Hey Daddy", and "I'm in the Mood for Love". The Satin Doll Trio is renowned for their excellence in the intimate "supper club jazz" style. They have appeared on the stages of The John F. Kennedy Center, The Corcorans' Armand Hammer Auditorium, and have made television appearances on the BET Jazz programs "Jazz Central" and "Impressions". The group has received exceptional reviews from the Washington Post, the Washington Times, and from JazzReview.com.

Vocalist Patrice Ferris has graced the cover of Washington Flyer magazine, as the magazines pick for "Best In Show", and most recently, the front cover of Volume V of THE WORLD WHO'S WHO IN JAZZ, CABARET, MUSIC AND ENTERTAINMENT, who called her the best trio singer of the year.
