Sunset Ridge Golf Club Names Jason Wall as New General Manager

Marcellus, New York - March. 17, 2014 – Sunset Ridge Golf Club (formally known as the Links at Sunset Ridge), a 18 hole championship golf course located at 2814 W Seneca Turnpike in Marcellus has promoted Jason Wall as General Manager. In this position, Wall will be responsible for leading and inspiring associates, driving revenue, and managing the golf club operations to accomplish Sunset Ridge's mission "To Provide the Best Golfing Experience and Environment in Central New York."

"We are excited to promote Jason to head our leadership team at Sunset Ridge," said DJ Van Keuren President of Sunset Ridge. "He brings new ideas, vision, passion, and purpose to this great property and we look forward to seeing his impact."

A graduate from Marcellus High School and lifetime Marcellus resident, Wall brings to his new position over 15 years in the golf industry while working in Florida and New York with the majority of his time coming from Sunset Ridge since its early beginnings. "Jason's 15 years of experience comes from participating in almost every part of the organization over the years. His knowledge from teaching to course maintenance to understanding the food and beverage operation is something that makes Jason very special," says DJ, "As a General Manager it is important to manage from experience and not theory. It is this type of experience that creates respect and confidence from those around him. Something very important as we move towards being the best golf course in CNY over the next 5 years."
