

A Delightful Threat to Put Children to Bed.

Betty Bad Kitty's Bedtime Stories, Blame it on the fly, and off to bed before it's too late.

DELRAY BEACH, FL. March 21, 2014. In a humorous new children's picture book, Betty Bad Kitty's Bedtime Stories, Blame It On The Fly, published by Good Puppy, Marina Tito and Lorenzo Di Alessandro take Betty out of the box to show us how just a little common house cat can wake up the entire neighborhood.

Meet Betty Bad, a mischievous house cat. Betty waits all day to play all night. But kitty falls into a Halloween costume box and unaware of her new disguise, she climbs up to the roof and creates a surprise. A neighbor calls the police, the firemen show up first to put everyone at ease and Betty is finally captured and returned home.

Supporting Good Puppy's motto to "Dream big, no matter how little you are," Betty looks at the moon with aspiration, the roof is "a skip, a hop and a jump away" and this adorable kitty can certainly claim the spotlight all to herself knowing the sky holds no limits.

Betty Bad Kitty's Bedtime Stories - Blame It On The Fly is available on iBooks, Kindle and in print, through Barnes & Noble, Amazon and other national and international retailers. For more information, visit goodpuppy.com.
