

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

KT Designs, LLC Appoints New Client Relations Officer

Washington, D.C. (April 21, 2014) – KT Designs, LLC (www.kt-designs.org) has announced today that David Greenlees, former Congressional Liaison for the US Marine Corps' (USMC) Office of Legislative Affairs, is joining the firm on April 21, 2014. Among his responsibilities, Mr. Greenlees will serve as KT Designs' Client Relations Officer.

“Given his broad and unique range of knowledge and experience, Dave Greenlees adds a significant and exceptional perspective that our clients now have the benefit of accessing. Dave is a perfect fit for the company and I am thrilled to have him join our all-star team,” Kristin Thomas, Owner of KT Designs, explained.

David Greenlees has extensive legal and leadership experience from his work with the USMC, as Chief Senate Legal Counsel for the Palau National Congress, an IP and litigation attorney for Procopio Cory Hargreaves & Savitch LLP, and during his time in the San Diego District Attorney's Office. Mr. Greenlees' experience in litigation includes criminal law, patent, trademark, copyright, unfair competition, trade secret, and general litigation.

“I'm honored to join the dynamic KT Designs team and look forward to meeting the growing demand for expert litigation support services and expanding our global customer base,” said Mr. Greenlees.

Concurrent with his legal practice, Mr. Greenlees continues to serve as a field artillery officer in the reserve component of the United States Marine Corps. He has served in locations all around the world including a combat tour in Iraq in 2003.

Mr. Greenlees received his Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice from George Washington University, completed the Comparative Law Program at Cambridge University, Trinity College in England, and obtained his Juris Doctor from Thomas Jefferson School of Law in San Diego.

Mr. Greenlees has a TS-SCI security clearance and has been admitted to the bar in California, Washington, D.C., Michigan, the Republic of Palau (Inactive), the United States Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces, the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and the United States District Court, Southern District of California.
