The Massachusetts Jump$tart Educator Financial Literacy Training Program

Boston, MA • June 25 – 27, 2014

This three-day training targets professionals who teach in a high school, college, or community setting. Learn to prepare effective and comprehensive financial literacy curricula, as well as improve your personal finance skills. The Educator Financial Literacy Training Program is designed for adult learners and models cutting-edge, effective, learner-centered instructional approaches.

Seasoned presenters and industry experts will cover the following financial topics:

- Global Economics and Personal Finance
- Financial Services and Identity Fraud
- Enhance Your Earning Capability
- Spending and Financial Planning
- Saving and Investing
- Managing Debt and Credit
- Insurance

Come and network with educators from around the region while learning about useful tools and resources you can bring into your classroom and your daily life. Upon completing this training, participants will be eligible for 20 PDPs and have the option to complete the WISE Personal Finance Certification.

FEE*:

$79 before June 15, 2014; $99 after June 15
A limited number of hotel rooms at the Doubletree by Hilton is available at an additional cost of $189 plus applicable taxes per night.

* Scholarships may be available on a case-by-case basis.

Educators from New England & New York are encouraged to attend.
