Customed, Inc. Issues Recall of Sterile Convenience Kits-Trays, Bags, And New Lots Added to the Previous Recall

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: November 2011 - October 9th, 2014

Customed, Inc.

Igualdad Ave. Final #7

Fajardo, Puerto Rico 00738

www.customedhealing.com

On October 8th, 2014 Customed, Inc. initiated a recall of sterile convenience surgical kits-trays, bags (known as "Convenience Kits"), and New Lots Added as follow-up to the June 3, 2014 Class I recall of 233 sterile convenience surgical kits. The Convenience kits have a potential package integrity defect that may compromise the sterility of the product, as well as serious deficiencies in manufacture and storage of the products that may significantly affect the risk of contamination and resultant infection.

No serious injuries or deaths have been reported as of October 9th, 2014. The FDA believes that it is unlikely that any infections that have occurred would be attributed to the Convenience Kits and consequently adverse events might be underreported.

Customed Convenience Kits are used primarily in hospitals or medical offices for patient care, wound healing, removal of sutures, etc. as well as in a wide range of surgical procedures.

Consumers who have products should stop using the product lots contained in the tables below.
