

BenefitVault Appoints New Chief Sales Officer with Vast Knowledge and Business Growth Experience

An Industry Leader in Premium Payments Strengthens Its Resources

January 9, 2015 - Philadelphia, PA – BenefitVault, a leading payments solutions company for the insurance industry, announced today that Christopher D. Carpino has joined the firm to further develop their growing portfolio of regional and national accounts. Chris Carpino comes with a wealth of experience within the insurance industry, having spent more than 25 years founding three benefit companies and in C-suite leadership roles for some of the nation’s largest consulting firms. Chris has proven to be instrumental in acquiring numerous large distribution channels. By joining BenefitVault in an executive role, Chris can continue his successes and his expertise in diverse subject matter will help the company to flourish.

“Knowing the importance of this role to our customers, I really put people to the test and Chris was the one candidate that passed with flying colors,” said BenefitVault CEO Cary Toner. Chris joins BenefitVault as Chief Sales Officer to enhance BenefitVault’s success in providing solutions and superior leadership to many of the top consulting firms and Saas providers in America. “I am excited to start a new challenge within BenefitVault and look forward to working with the team to further develop their already innovative product and service suite,” Chris stated. “I am fortunate to be joining such a respected and innovative company that is pioneering new pathways of insurance premium payments.”