JSwinetours – JScitytours

Touring in 2015

JSwinetours recently published its wine travel program for the 2015 season. Apart from the private tours and day tours in Alsace and Burgundy all year round, there will be a luxury Alsace tour in autumn and two luxury Tuscany tours, one in spring and one in autumn.

All luxury tours are 5 days and 4 nights. On each tour there will be about 10 exclusive tastings. Most meals are included, some at the wine estates and some of the dinners will be at Michelin starred restaurants of great fame. Detailed programs will be mailed on request.

New in 2015: Burgundy tours

JSwinetours will also bring groups to Burgundy in 2015. As wine lovers we already went to Burgundy ourselves, so it seemed only logical to add these tours, explains founder of JSwinetours, Jacob P. Smits. We will begin with private tours only.

Like in Alsace and Tuscany we know our way in Burgundy. We took the time to visit and taste at smaller and relatively unknown wineries. Very important is that we tried out lots of little restaurants. We think it is always a sport to find that spot that offers great quality for a good price. This means that like in Alsace we can add a great lunch and or dinner on a “one day tour” and offer the whole package still for a reasonable price.

And we can also be of service now to wine & food lovers that would like to get to know Alsace and Burgundy in for example two or three days in one tour package with us.

Alsace City and Genealogy Tours

Although we started focusing on wine tours a couple of years ago, more and more times people asked us to do something different, for example helping them explore their family roots in Alsace. This made us decide to add “Alsace City and Genealogy Tours” to the program with visits to Strasbourg and Colmar but also to smaller villages like Equisheim, Kaysersberg, Riquewihr and Turckheim.

Luxury tours 2015

JSwinetours luxury tours are limited to groups of 8 people. The tours are hosted by professional wine tour manager Jacob Pieter Smits.

JSwinetours has specialized in 3 wine areas: Alsace, Burgundy and Tuscany. Smits is living in France, quasi in between Alsace and Burgundy. Tuscany has been a holiday location for over 25 years.

The tour planning

- Tuscany tour I will be from 26-30 Mai
- Alsace tour I will be from 8-12 September
- Tuscany tour II will be from 5-10 October

For the Alsace tours you will enjoy a 4* hotel in Colmar.

For the Tuscany tours you will enjoy a 4* hotel in Siena.

Transport is always by a luxury private air-conditioned minibus.

About JSwinetours

JSwinetours stands for JoliSoleil wine tours or Jacob P. Smits wine tours.

After emigrating from the Netherlands to France in 2003, Jacob Smits first started a holiday house rental company. Being close to Alsace and Burgundy people began to ask him for guidance on visiting wineries and touring the region. As this happened more frequently every year and as wine has always been a hobby of Smits he decided to make it his full time occupation in 2009.

Smits is also available for wine and gourmet tastings and presentations in the Netherlands and California.

He is an active user of several social media and publishes about food and wine on his JSwinetours blog.
