EQUITY FINANCING AVAILABLE FOR BUSINESSES IN TEXAS

The Crowdfunding Rules of Texas open up new opportunities for Entrepreneurs

Dallas, Texas: Equity crowdfunding is real in Texas with the implementation of the crowdfunding rules in February 2015. This is not a usual year for Texas Entrepreneurs. Animas Crowdfunding, founded by Amir Morani CPA, author of “How to Raise $1,000,000 for your business in Texas” is launching a campaign in Dallas, TX to educate entrepreneurs about Crowdfunding opportunities in Texas.

The first event in this campaign is being held at Dallas Entrepreneur Center at 311 North Market Street, Dallas, TX-75202 on April 10, 2015. This event is being held in collaboration with MassVenture the first approved portal for crowdfunding in Texas.

“With crowdfunding available in Texas, so many new opportunities will open for new entrepreneurs and existing small businesses to raise equity funding for their businesses without going through expensive and long registration process” said Amir Morani CPA, he further added “with proper knowledge and understanding entrepreneurs could be raising equity within a matter of few weeks.”

Animas Crowdfunding will provide full end-to-end support to entrepreneurs to help them list their businesses for crowdfunding with a highly efficient process. Animas Crowdfunding has launched a special campaign to help entrepreneurs through this process to help them to take advantage of this opportunity under the new law.

Animas Crowdfunding offers a complete solution for entrepreneurs to prepare their business for making an equity offering to investors in Texas through an approved portal under the new crowdfunding rules of Texas. Amir Morani CPA, has over 25 years of experience of assisting small and medium sized businesses and has a full-cycle entrepreneurial experience and is currently the principal of A. Morani CPA P.C. servicing a large portfolio of small and medium sized businesses in Dallas, TX.
