

Makunudu Island announces Enhancement Plan - Phase One

Press Release: Male, Maldives, 13 April, 2015.

Makunudu Island, one of the Maldives original and much loved island resorts is getting ready for the first phase of gentle enhancements that will form part of a longer term upgrade programme.

Mr. Shabeer Ahmed, Managing Director commented “We are delighted to share the details of our exciting plans that will uplift the public areas, Deluxe Bungalows and our guests’ experience, whilst maintaining the simple and natural environment that makes Makunudu unique”.

Phase One of this upgrade plan is due to be completed by 31st October, 2015 and will include a soft refurbishment of the Deluxe Bungalows and public areas including replacement furnishings and the introduction of complimentary Wi-Fi in public areas.

Effective 1st November, 2015, Makunudu Island will operate on a Bed & Breakfast basis, however, Half Board and Full Board will still be available. Dining options will include the introduction of an International a la carte menu at Ara Iru and other Island favourites such beach barbecues, themed nights and private beach dining can also be enjoyed. “Excursions such as night fishing can be arranged for guests and any catch can be freshly prepared and cooked by our chef”, said Mr Shabeer.

About Makunudu Island and Sunland Travel

Makunudu Island was acquired by Sunland Travel Pvt Ltd in 1994, an independent Travel Company that began operations in 1985. Following extensive renovations Makunudu Island became renowned as one of the original intimate hideaways in the Indian Ocean. 36 simply designed beach bungalows nestled into natural surroundings set the scene for a relaxing and authentic Maldivian experience. Located in North Male Atoll and only 55 minutes by speedboat from Male International Airport.
