The MCS Group, Inc. Opens New Office in Boston

PHILADELPHIA – The MCS Group, Inc., a national provider of outsourcing solutions, announced today that they have opened a new office in Boston, MA to better serve their clients located in the United States’ Northeast Region.

The office, headed by Executive Vice President and Northeast Regional Manager Gerri Finnegan, will offer the full suite of MCS’s services, including record retrieval, process service, e-Discovery and facilities management.

“This is an exciting time for MCS,” said Rosemary Esposito, CEO of The MCS Group, Inc. “As we expand our MCS team in Boston with a staff that is energized and committed to excellence, I look forward to being able to support the entire Northeast Corridor in a more effective and efficient manner.”

MCS is thrilled to continue growing throughout the country. Esposito believes that this expansion solidifies the company’s commitment to the entire legal community.
