

SEBC 2015 Main Stage Showcase Winner Highlight

This year, at the SEBC Main Stage, three designers came together to bring to life a Rockin' Music Room, Master Bath Suite, and an Outdoor Living Area for our Main Stage Showcase Competition. Geri Visconti and Amber Visconti Lemely of ViscontiDesignGroup,LLC came out victorious and won the vote of the judges!

Jupiter, FL based, ViscontiDesignGroup, LLC, is a small, hands on interior design firm that specializes in “tutto casa” – everything home! Upon formulating a well-rounded understanding of a client’s needs, VDG achieves success by discerning the smallest details and then incorporating them into a harmonious mixture of aesthetics and function. Vast knowledge of critical elements such as scale, color, interior detailing and proper material selection, are all invaluable tools brought to the table. These talents, along with their revered personal customer service, have garnered VDG a loyal, continually returning clientele. Having originally attended UNC – Wilmington to study Art History, Geri Visconti now has an A. S. in Interior Design and currently holds an (inactive) FL Interior Design license.

Congratulations to our Main Stage Showcase winner!
