Minneapolis, MN, August 31st, 2015 – Homes for Heroes Inc. is proud to recognize, Travis Newton of Salem, OR for being inducted into the prestigious 100 Heroes Served Club. Since joining the company in 2012, Newton has given back to 163 heroes. The substantial savings Newton offers has made the dream of home ownership more attainable for so many community heroes and their families.

“Travis exemplifies what it truly means to be a member of this program. Being a Homes for Heroes affiliate requires more than just helping heroes with their real estate needs, it means getting involved in the local community and helping heroes with whatever they need. We couldn’t be more proud to have someone of his caliber as a part of our team and representing his local community heroes.” says Ruth Johnson, Homes for Heroes CEO.

When asked how this major accomplishment made him feel, Newton said “It’s pretty cool to have helped 163 heroes. I can go back and remember almost every one of them, and remember their faces, and their stories, and everything about them. I think that’s more special to me than just the numbers. It’s how many of them I remember working with, and to see the joy and excitement on the families faces when they are able to buy their home. It’s just huge.”
