

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ATLANTA HOMES FOR HEROES® AFFILIATE LENDER GIVES BACK TO OVER 100 HEROES AND THEIR FAMILIES

National HOMES FOR HEROES Program Honors Gianni Cerretani for earning the prestigious 100 Heroes Served Club Award

Minneapolis, MN, November 18th, 2015 – Homes for Heroes Inc. is proud to recognize, Gianni Cerretani of Atlanta, GA for being inducted into the prestigious 100 Heroes Served Club. Since joining the company in December of 2010, Cerretani has given back to well over 100 heroes. The substantial savings Cerretani offers has made the dream of home ownership more attainable for so many community heroes and their families.

“Gianni exemplifies what it truly means to be a member of this program. Being a Homes for Heroes affiliate requires more than just helping heroes with their real estate needs. It also requires getting involved in the local community and helping heroes with whatever they need. We couldn’t be more proud to have someone of his caliber as a part of our team and representing his local community heroes,” says Ruth Johnson, Homes for Heroes CEO.

When asked why he joined Homes for Heroes and what this achievement means to him, Cerretani responded, “What really drove the program home for me was when I found myself caught in a funeral procession for a local State Trooper that had been killed. I saw all the fire trucks, police cars and state trooper cars from various states in that procession, there to support that fallen officer and his family. After that, I knew I had to join Homes for Heroes. There is no better feeling than sitting at the closing table and being able to take a picture of your clients holding a big check that shows them just how much you were able to help them save. This has nothing to do with loans or real estate, it’s all about helping these heroes and taking care of the people that take care of us. ”
