Minneapolis, MN November 18th, 2015 – Homes for Heroes Inc. is proud to recognize, Brandon Johnson and Heidi Voigt of St. Cloud, MN for being inducted into the prestigious 100 Heroes Served Club. Since joining the company in March of 2014, Johnson and Voigt have helped 106 heroes and given back over $154,000 of their own income to local heroes. These substantial savings have made the dream of home ownership more attainable for community heroes and their families.

“Brandon and Heidi exemplify what it truly means to be a member of this program. Being a Homes for Heroes affiliate requires more than just helping heroes with their real estate needs. It also requires getting involved in the local community and helping heroes with whatever they need. We couldn’t be more proud to have someone of their caliber as a part of our team and representing their local community heroes,” says Ruth Johnson, Homes for Heroes CEO.

When asked how receiving this award made them feel and what Homes for Heroes has meant to them over the years, Brandon Johnson said, “We are passionate about real estate but we also believe in giving back to the community. The Homes for Heroes program fits both of those principles perfectly for us. The money we’re saving and giving back to our hero clients is money that stays here and is spent here in our community.”
