List of 50 most influential players in the Daily Fantasy Sports Game and their contributions to the industry.

The Top 50 DFS Influencers of 2015 list — PlayingLegal.com announces the publishing of The Top 50 DFS Influencers of 2015 list to celebrate the influential people who have made a great impact on the daily fantasy sports industry. Throughout the year of 2015, the industry has had both ups and downs. However, there is no denying that the game of Daily Fantasy Sports has propelled its way to the top of the charts in entertainment with enormous growth just this year. That is not to say the industry hasn't also faced a fair share of adversity, consistently battling for legality in a handful of states after gaining federal legalization in 2006. Although the fight persists to keep DFS alive in parts of United States, the influencers on PlayingLegal's list continue to roll up their sleeves and push the industry forward. Through the thick and thin, these influencers make up the backbone and drive that continues to keep the wheels turning in DFS. Without them, there is no telling where the industry would stand today.

The list is comprised of bloggers, reporters, CEOs, Directors, and more, each of who has had a direct impact on the daily fantasy sports industry. From content writers to major executives for leading DFS companies, each and every contributor played a crucial role in the industry's success this past year. A special congratulations goes out to all those individuals who have made it on PlayingLegal's list; it is well deserved.
