

The Jazz Corner Presents:

The Satin Doll Trio Honors the Women of Supper Club Jazz and Cool Jazz

Washington DC's popular Satin Doll Trio presents an intimate musical program paying tribute to great American singers ranging from the Supper Club style of artists like Blossom Dearie, Doris Day, Peggy Lee and Lena Horne, to the Cool Jazz style of singers like June Christy, Anita O'Day, Chris Conner, Julie London and more. The show not only recreates this wonderful music, but shares intimate stories about artist's lives gathered over the years from friends and family members.

The Satin Doll Trio is renowned for their excellence in the intimate "supper club jazz" style and have appeared on the stages of The John F. Kennedy Center, The Armand Hammer Auditorium, and have made television appearances on the BET Jazz programs "Jazz Central" and "Impressions". The group has received exceptional reviews from the Washington Post, the Washington Times, and from JazzReview.com.

Vocalist Patrice Ferris has graced the cover of Washington Flyer magazine, and the cover of Volume V of THE WORLD WHO'S WHO IN JAZZ, CABARET, MUSIC AND
