

Augusta Ray Signs with AStar Promotions for Management and Booking Nashville, TN (4/7/16)

AStar Promotions is proud to introduce country artist Augusta Ray as the newest addition to its' roster where she joins several other performers, including The Mantz Brothers for management and booking representation.

With offices located in Nashville, TN, Chicago, IL and Lake Geneva, WI, AStar Promotions specializes in talent buying, show production, management and booking, showcasing its depth of industry knowledge and expertise. With the signing of Augusta Ray, AStar further extends its reach into the realm of management and booking, making AStar a one-stop-shop for entertainers in any format, on any stage.

"Known for creativity and work ethic, AStar makes the most of every opportunity for both artists and events," said CEO of AStar Promotions Frank Lena. "We believe Augusta Ray is a perfect match with her creative songwriting, dynamic voice and stage presence, she's a total complement to AStar's business model."

Her name is Augusta, but you can call her "Gus" and she was destined for the stage. Growing up in Toronto Ontario, Canada on a solid diet of eclectic music acts such as Led Zeppelin, Jimi Hendrix and Shania Twain shaped her unique country-rock sound. This sound, accompanying her incredible vocal talent, and mixed with her energetic, engaging stage presence, has people taking notice everywhere she performs.

Now Nashville based, her hard work is paying off, as this rising star has already left her mark in the country scene, winning the North American Country Music Association International (NACMAI) "New Country Vocalist of the Year 2016" award, the NACMAI "New Country CD of the Year 2016" award, "New Country Songwriter of the Year 2016" award, "Traditional Country Songwriter of the Year 2016, award and was one of the Top-7 featured artists on ole's "On The Spot" competition in 2015.

"Augusta Ray is the total package and one to keep your eyes on" said Lena.
