GIVES BACK TO MORE THAN 100 LOCAL HEROES

Homes for Heroes honors Kyra Sommerville Moore of Urbandale, IA for serving 101 local heroes, providing over $55,000 in Hero Rewards® savings and earning the prestigious 100 Heroes Served Club award.

Minneapolis, MN – Homes for Heroes, Inc. is proud to recognize Kyra Sommerville Moore of Urbandale, IA for being inducted into the prestigious 100 Heroes Served Club. Since joining Homes for Heroes in 2013, Moore has served 101 heroes and provided over $55,000 in Hero Rewards savings to local heroes.

Local hero, Lana Stanton, who is the wife of a police officer, recently worked with Moore and Homes for Heroes to buy their home and had this to say about Kyra, “She gives back!!! In honor of my husband in law enforcement, she donated a portion from herself to help us close. Commendable and selfless, much appreciated and hard to find in today's society! Kyra and her team were very inviting, informative and thorough. For the first time, they actually made the monotony of paperwork, detail and financing, fun! We will send anyone in need her way, every time!”

“Kyra exemplifies what it truly means to be a member of this program. Being a Homes for Heroes affiliate requires more than just helping heroes with their real estate needs, it means getting involved in the local community and helping heroes with whatever they need. We couldn't be more proud to have someone of her caliber as a part of our team and representing local community heroes,” says Ruth Johnson, Homes for Heroes CEO/Founder.
