Boardwalk Settlement Services, LLC Now Serving Atlantic and Cape May Counties

Sea Isle City, New Jersey, November 1, 2016

Conceived by mutual respect for each other, and an appreciation for maintaining a culture of excellence rooted in integrity, honesty, and reliability as well as sharing the focused desire to continually improve products and services to meet the always changing needs of the Real Estate industry, Joe Maressa, Jr., Esq., Mark D'Agostino, and Ed Rickenbach combined forces in Atlantic and Cape May Counties, in September of 2016, to form Boardwalk Settlement Services, LLC.

Joe, Mark, and Ed have established themselves as industry leaders in the Delaware Valley Real Estate Community for the past thirty-five years, each managing successful companies having a combined staff of over 150 Title Professionals, successfully completing over 15,000 closings annually. Attention to detail with an unrelenting commitment to prompt, accurate, and courteous service is their mission and the Hallmark of Boardwalk Settlement Services, LLC.

"We have the expertise to handle complex title issues that are commonly experienced along the Jersey Shore, making us uniquely qualified to get deals to the table and successfully closed in a timely manner..." said Joe Maressa, Jr., Esq. "... the knowledge and resources we have in-house to deal with issues involving condominium associations, tidelands and riparian rights is unsurpassed in the industry."

A loyal client base consisting of over one-hundred National, Regional, and Local Residential and Commercial Builders, Realtors, Law Firms, Banks, and Mortgage Companies is a testament to their mission and commitment to service.

"Ed and I have great confidence that this joint venture with Joe Maressa and his crew will be a success," said Mark D'Agostino "and we feel that our combined efforts will make for a better settlement experience for the buyers and borrowers at the South Jersey Shore."
