Teens In Public Service (TIPS) Announces the Election of the Following Officers

Seattle, WA (February 15, 2017) – Teens In Public Service, a local nonprofit focused on providing teen leaders with meaningful employment in area not-for-profit organizations, announced its recent elections for new and re-appointed board members for 2017:

Joe Brotherton, Chairman

Mr. Brotherton is a Seattle based attorney-CPA, philanthropist, private equity investor and real estate developer. He also serves as chair of Democracy Live, Inc, and Purcell Painting and Coating. He currently teaches at the UW School of Law and also teaches at the Monroe Prison through its University Behind Bars program.

Katie Hosford Traverse, Vice Chair

Traverse is a community volunteer and non-practicing attorney. She has served on the board of the Wedgwood Community Council and as Editor of the Wedgwood Echo newsletter. Katie is the current Vice President of the Wedgwood Elementary PTA.

Jessica Adair, Treasurer

Adair is a Washington State CPA, who volunteers for TIPS, as well as several other nonprofit organizations in the Puget Sound. Jessica owns her consulting practice, Adair Business Consulting and is the immediate past President of the Women Business Owner group.

Arthur Furukawa, Secretary

Furukawa is the founder and principal architect of SABArchitects, with both CA and WA architect licenses, as well as his Masters in Architecture from Columbia University. Arthur is a regional expert in the design of research and development facilities, as well as childcare design, which he has accomplished through work done with Bright Horizons in the Northwest.

Additionally, the following individuals will serve as TIPS board members for the coming year: Joey E. Brotherton, Melissa Masterleo, Rebecca McLean, Natasha Ryan, and Edward Yang.

About Teens In Public Service

Teens In Public Service (TIPS) was founded in 1997 and is dedicated to producing youth leaders committed to their communities. TIPS has placed nearly 1,000 high school students as paid interns, providing a total of over 100,000 service hours to more than 170 not-for-profit organizations throughout the Puget Sound.
