Kentucky Derby Party to Benefit Three Oakland County Charities

Rochester, MI – (April 4, 2017) — Gone are the days of bake sales and rummage sales! The Rochester Junior Women's Club puts the "fun" back in "fundraising" by hosting it's 3rd Annual "Haute to Trot" Kentucky Derby Party.

On May 6, 2017, ladies and gentleman will don big hats and crazy bowties for an evening of fun at the Rochester Hills Museum, to enjoy live entertainment, Mint Juleps and dinner to show their support for three Oakland county charities. The evening's festivities will also include a silent auction, cigar tent, awards for "Best Hat" and "Best Blazer" and, of course, the Kentucky Derby simulcast.

"This is our third year hosting this event. We're really excited to be able to help raise money for these worthy organizations!" says event co-chair, Lori Wilson.

Tickets are $85 per person and can be purchased online at <http://RJWC.org/shop>, with all proceeds to benefit Dutton Farm, Inc., Paint a Miracle and the Rochester Area Neighborhood House. A limited number of sponsorship opportunities are available for select businesses.
