KARTOON CIRCUS REVIVES SATURDAY MORNING TELEVISION

Dal and Cinde Sanders as The Ringmaster and Boopsie The Clown bring back a traditional children's television format with modern themes.

Dallas, TX, June 1, 2017— A young boy sits on the couch staring at a screen. He's watching a TV show that is hosted by a magician and his clown sidekick. They are performing magic, announcing multi-talented variety artists and introducing cartoons that were created in the 30s, 40s and 50s. The kid isn't watching Mark Wilson's "Magic Land of Alakazam". He isn't watching "Wonderama" or the myriad of local cartoon shows of the past either. The screen he's watching the show on isn't even a traditional television (although it could be). He's watching Kartoon Circus on his grandmother's smart phone and she's right next to him, thrilled to see the cartoons from her youth again.

Each episode features some of the best Classic Cartoons starring many favorite characters including Popeye, Betty Boop, Buzzy and Molly Moo Cow. These wonderful cartoons come from the time when cartoons were hand drawn and not computer generated.

Kartoon Circus is a delightful E/I (Educational/Instructional) series. It features Dal Sanders as the Magical Ringmaster and his co-host "Boopsie the Clown", played by Cinde Sanders along with their lovely assistant Lacey Bellamy. The show also features guests including Circus Artists; Raphaële Daubois and Joseph Gibby, juggler Jeff (Tharpo) Tharp, Margaret Clauder as Mother Goose and Pix Smith performing marionettes.

Every episode also features magic and educational segments on various topics including Ecology, Recycling, Energy Conversation, Science, the importance of books and reading, safety, drug and alcohol prevention and Character Building.

Kartoon Circus is reminiscent of the children's television of decades past. It's the kind of program that parents love for the nostalgia and that children love because there is nothing else like it on the air.

Kartoon Circus is a Nationally Syndicated series that can be seen on Saturday Mornings on Hot-TV. It can also be seen twice daily on Spydar-TV. Spydar-TV is a multi-platform television network that can be seen in several US markets as well as online via a free app for smart phones and tablets.

Dal Sanders has been studying and performing the art of magic as a full-time professional for almost forty years and has performed across the United States and in Europe, South America and Asia. He has headlined his own illusion shows and shared the stage with many top acts including The Beach Boys, The Dixie Chicks, Kenny Rogers, Gladys Knight and more.

Dal is a Past President of The Society of American Magicians, the oldest and most prestigious magic organization in the world. The organization also includes Harry Houdini, Howard Thurston and others as Past National Presidents. He has been awarded the title of M.I.M.C. from The Magic Circle in London and Order of Willard for T.A.O.M. Dal is also a member of The International Brotherhood of Magicians, a member of The Academy of Magical Arts (The Magic Castle) and is a Charter Member of KIDabra International.

Sanders is well known for his educational school shows on many subjects including Reading, Character Building, Leadership, Self Esteem, Science, Drug Prevention, Ecology and Being a Good Friend...Not a Bully. In fact, there are many entertainers worldwide who regularly perform Dal Sanders' routines in their own educational shows.

In addition to hosting Kartoon Circus, Dal Sanders has performed on international television as a feature entertainer on several Mrs. International Beauty Pageants, television commercials and was recently featured on a Comedy Central Special. Dal will be also be featured in the upcoming feature comedy film Hidden in the Heart of Texas.

Professional Variety Entertainment is what Cinde Sanders as Boopsie The Clown represents. With her endearing personality and ability to entertain, it did not take long to gather a following. Boopsie is one of the few white-faced clowns in North Texas area. She is an award winning professional clown, face painter, balloon artist, magician, and puppeteer who provides exceptional Variety Entertainment. Boopsie performs for schools, daycares, libraries, birthday parties, company picnics, sporting events, private parties and corporate events. She delights children and adults alike in the hundreds of shows she performs in every year.

In addition to Boopsie The Clown, Cinde has developed other characters and shows including "Sister Cat" (The Cat in the Hat's Sister), "Safari Cinde" (Dinosaur puppet show) and seasonal characters "Cinde The Magical Elf" and "Cinde the Magical Witch."

The show is produced by Joel Stephens who created the TV show, "Sprockets and Splices". Since its creation, the show has more than 100 episodes across 8 seasons. Each episode is hosted by beautiful amateur models called 'The Splice Girls'. In the Fall of 2012, he filmed a pilot Made for TV Movie - featuring a character he created to host "the best of the worst" "B" movies - 'Professor Terrance von Riesling'. The pilot became a series in 2014 as "Pale Moonlight Theater" with 20 episodes as of May 2015. In January 2015, he created another TV series - "Six Gun Theater" which features 'Kelly Bob Stublefield' (World Champion Single Action Shooter) hosting Classic Western movies. After the success of both Pale Moonlight Theater and Six Gun Theater, he also created "Dark Jungle Theater" (Hosted by 'Princess Omaka') featuring classic jungle movies and then "Who Dunit Theater" (hosted by 'Spurlock Holmes') which featured early detective movies with characters such as Charlie Chan, Sherlock Holmes, etc.
