Tranzon Driggers Principal inducted into National Auctioneers Association's Hall of Fame at annual Conference and Show

Ocala, FL, 08/14/2017 -- Thomas W. Saturley, a principal of Tranzon Driggers, a real estate auction company based in Ocala, FL and working throughout the Southeastern U.S., was recently honored by being inducted into the National Auctioneers Association's Hall of Fame. He joins an elite group of auction professionals who have been honored since the tradition began in 1961.

Tom has been an active member and leader within the NAA since joining the organization in 1991. He served on the Board of Directors starting in 2002 through 2005 and holds the distinction of being the only person asked by two presiding NAA Presidents to be their Presidential Appointee to the NAA Board of Directors. He was elected to leadership positions starting in 2013, culminating as the Chairman of the Board in 2016. He received the Presidential Award of Distinction in 2003 for his arduous work on the NAA's Education Institute and received the award again in 2016.

Mr. Saturley was inducted into the Hall of Fame at the National Auctioneers Association annual International Auctioneers Conference and Show, held July 11-15, 2017 in Columbus, OH.

David Bradshaw, President of Tranzon Driggers, also attended the annual NAA Conference and Show. David spent the week attending educational sessions and networking with hundreds of other auction professionals from across the United States and several other countries.

Tranzon Driggers is a member company of Tranzon, LLC. Tranzon is one of the largest real estate auction companies in the country, with over 30 offices coast-to-coast.
