

Turning the first shovel of dirt at the site of Largo MD's first Homewood Suites by Hilton, from left, are: Derrick Davis, Chairman, Prince George's County Council; Bill Fortier, SVP/Development, Hilton; Jim Coleman, President & CEO, Prince George's Economic Development Corporation; Rushern Baker, County Executive, Prince George's County; Evens Charles, Managing Principal, Frontier Development & Hospitality Group; Jason Boehm, VP/Business Development, OTO Development; Andrea Harrison, Council Member, Prince George's County Council; David Harrington, President/CEO, Chamber of Commerce; Joanne Benson, Senator, Maryland State Senate; Starla Shambourger, VP/Construction Loan Admin Manager, EagleBank.

Homewood Suites is designed to be the extended stay hotel of choice for business and leisure travelers who want upscale accommodations – and all the comforts of home – at a value-driven price. Slated for completion in late 2018, Homewood Suites Largo/Washington DC will be owned by Frontier Development & Hospitality Group and managed by OTO Development, a Spartanburg SC-based Johnson Management company.