

NewCasinos.com Product Release: Vegas Hero Goes Live

To showcase the newest brands, NewCasinos.com, part of Catena Media, has made an in-depth evaluation in an exclusive partnership release of Vegas Hero. The new casino site is going live today with license from both United Kingdom and Malta.

Wake up in Las Vegas, is the experience from the newest casino brand from 2017, Vegas Hero. The brand-new site will have its players immersed in the wonders of great power and fortune, while offering over 1300 games from eleven game providers after release, including the most popular titles from NetEnt, Microgaming, Play 'N Go and Elk Studios. Vegas Hero also features one of the top live casino offerings in the industry, with unique games such as French Roulette, a fast version of live Baccarat and high roller common draw Blackjack to name a few. Since Vegas Hero have licenses from both Malta and United Kingdom, the site is accessible for a wide range of players that can transcend themselves and unlock their inner hero. The company offers 17 various payment methods to get started, making it simple for any player to get started.

The web design and user experience is top notch and it's clear that the site is designed with mobile users in focus, even if desktop users also have a great experience here. When arriving at the site, it feels like being in Vegas, but from the comfort of home. New players get up to €/$ 1000 in bonus and 50 extra spins on the four first deposits. Recurring campaigns every Tuesday makes sure that new rewards are there to enjoy. VIP players can enjoy exclusive bonuses such as flights to Las Vegas, other holiday packages around the world, faster personal withdrawal service, personalized birthday presents and a dedicated account manager and exclusive invitations to great events.
